

KiKi McCollister

BAND STORY

"Raquita " KiKi" McCollister has been in love with music since the tender age of two. She began to show an interest, singing in the adult choir at church. Her mom, Daphne McCollister, always challenged her by having her study different styles of singing and music all together, listening to singers and groups from all genres. At age four, Raquita began taking piano lessons where she gained an interest in classical music, but always wanted to "remix" Beethoven' s pieces. As she got older, KiKi began to gain an interest in songwriting, writing her first song at 11 years old titled, " You Are My Sister", dedicated to her childhood friend. From that moment on, songwriting became second nature, something that she dedicated much time to. KiKi McCollister is now an evangelist and Praise & Worship Leader at New Kingdom International Deliverance Ministries in Beaumont, Texas, where Prophet William Franklin is pastor. There is where she found her purpose and true inspiration for her songs. Her eclectic sound and life-changing songs are testimonial, uplifting, and inspiring, able to touch people from all lifestyles. "

Have YOU Ever Been Touched?

I have a quick testimony. I was molested at age 9, 12, and 20. Interesting thing is, I'm not alone. It took me 8 years to tell someone about my childhood molestation for the first time. I realized at 17 years old that holding that information inside was making me bitter instead of better, unforgiving instead of forgiving, weaker instead of stronger. When I was 20 I was molested at frat party...my LAST party, too. lol

But I was also 'touched' by an angel...the angel that appeared to me saying, "Come unto ye who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest"...after that one touch, I have never been the same. My shattered heart was made whole...

So...since I have forgiven all guilty parties involved, and I have been delivered from bitterness and unforgiveness, I figured it's time to share my story with everyone...in song! Yes, me, Freshcuz, and probably Blaze, hahahaha

...the, ...sounz, and probably blaze...hahaha
Okay, so I just added a couple of artists...I'm sayin' though...this is what my VOICE is made for...to 'touch' someone's life!

Muzic Makes the World Go 'Round!

Wow! There is so much talent on MuzicHeadz! We haven't had a "We Are the World" type song in YEARS! Just imagine if we, the artists, musicians, DJ's, songwriters, could come together for the common good, put our talents together to give people hope in a dying world...that would be MARVELOUS!!!!

I'm a Christian artist who understands that everyone will not associate faith, hope, and love with Jesus Christ, but everyday we live by faith; everyday we love; everyday we hope for the best.

I know there has to be some artist on here who will be willing to put religion and tradition down and focus on the fact that whether people have Jesus or Buddha, it is our duty as a PEOPLE to feed the hungry and give to the needy; and because MUSIC is the only thing that can bring people from all walks of life together, we have the influence that can cause teenage girls to be more respectful to their bodies...teenage boys to be more respectful to their mothers...women to believe that they are beautiful after chemotherapy...husbands to love their wives...and so on.

Where are the songs about AIDS awareness, breast cancer, teenage pregnancy, runaways, ect....there ought to be more to life than sex, clubs, cars, rims, and money. You know what they say...2 MuzicHeadz are better than 1... 😊
